Preserve the Harvest

Presidents Message

For 156 years the Shelburne Agricultural Society has showcased Agriculture and promoted Homecraft Skills as provided by our friends, families, and neighbors. This year is no different.

As Shelburne grows, we strive to promote our agricultural roots while being inclusive to our new and growing community, hopefully adding new events that will catch the interest of everyone.

To say "it takes a village" is an understatement and with keeping that in mind I would like to Thank all the Directors and Volunteers who work endlessly throughout the year to bring you the best fair possible. Also, without sponsorship the fair would not be possible. We acknowledge how hard it is and has been for businesses and thank you for your contribution no matter how big or small.

We hope everyone enjoys this year's fair and we urge you to come out and enter an event or participate in some way or simply reconnect with the community.

We look forward to seeing you this year at the Shelburne Fall Fair.

Murray Crawford
2023 President
Shelburne District Agricultural Society

1/3 Cup Butter or Becel margarine

4 Tbsp cocoa

2/3 Cup white sugar

1 egg and 1 egg yolk

½ Cup of Gluten Free Flour (such as Bob's Red Mill Gluten Free all purpose baking flour)

Pinch of salt

1 tsp vanilla

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Line a 8 or 9 inch square pan with foil –shiny side down and grease the foil.

Melt butter and cocoa in a small pan over low heat until almost melted. Remove from heat and stir until completely melted.

Transfer to bowl and stir in sugar. Then beat in the egg and egg yolk. Gently stir in flour salt and vanilla.

Scrape into prepared pan and bake until just barely set in the middle – between 14 and 20 minutes depending on your oven.

Better to be under baked than overdone. When cool, lift from pan and cut. These are very flat brownies –they will puff while baking but deflate when cooled.
